

Hawaii Holomua

PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, APR. 26, 1894.

THE HOLOMUA IS A "PEOPLE'S" PAPER AND IT REMAINS AT A "PEOPLE'S" PRICE. DELIVERED DAILY AT RESIDENCES FOR 50 CENTS PER MONTH.

'FISH AND POI.'

A Refutation of P. G. Assurance.

It has been the habit and policy of the p. g. boomers to deride the Hawaiians by stating that as long as they had poi and fish; they didn't care a snap for the form of government under which they had to live. Mr. Thurston, Mr. Alexander, little Hastings and Consul Wilder, have been singing the same tune. The natives it is further more said, were simply led by a number of unscrupulous adventurers from foreign countries. It may be well to disabuse the mind of those who have believed in these outrageous accusations against an able, civilized and intelligent race. We reproduce a couple of articles that appeared a short while ago in a purely native paper, the Makana. They fully express the true feelings of the Hawaiians, and they also show the interest the aborigines take in politics. And nobody can accuse the Makana of being influenced by white "trash" like the other native papers.

FOR A REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT.

Yes, such is the form of Government that our usurpers and missionaries desire to hoist on this country. For what purpose? So that they may gain their desire to proudly trample on this country and crush the aborigines to the wall, and thus they will become strangers in their own land. That is not all, but that they may continue enslaving the laborers on the sugar plantations, and so continue to reap the benefits derived from the sweat of others' brows. If the annexation scheme had been consummated, they would have been free from the choking grasp of the law; whereas, their dirty bait to the Government of the United States has been rejected of at tempting to give Hawaii without any semblance of rightful claim and without the consent of the aborigines, and now comes this attempt in another way, in order probably that they may receive some period of ease (?) in their last feeble gasps of approaching death.

What is a republican form of Government? that is a question that we shall ask. We here answer that it is a form of Government conducted by the whole nation through its representatives duly elected by the whole people. And how are we today? Is such the mode the usurpers now conduct it in? No, not at all! They have cast the people aside, and only their own insignificant minority is now arbitrarily ruling over us. In order to show their hopeless minority, it will be seen by the census of 1890, that 89,300 was the total population, divided as follows: Hawaiians, 40,622; foreigners born in Hawaii, 7,495; Japanese, 12,360; Chinese, 15,301; Portuguese, 8,602; other nationalities, 5,610; in this last total is included 1,928 Americans, 1,344 British, 1,084 Germans, 227 Norwegians, 70 French, 588 Polynesians and 419 of other nationalities. Therefore, 13,105 is the grand total of foreigners in opposition to the number of 40,622 of aborigines, that is, 84,628 red-skin and 6,105 halfbloods. But nevertheless, they proudly lord it over us, knowing full well that we are in the majority at the ballot box, because, it is of record in the Great Register that there are 8,777 native Hawaiian voters, 777 half-castes and 146 of foreigners born here, making a total of 9,700 against 2,091 Portuguese and 1,802 of other nationalities, total 3,893. It must be also considered that all the foreigners both those Hawaiian born and those from other lands are not in with these people who are ever ready to gouge out our eyes.

Moreover, it certainly cannot be again said that such is not their incessant desire. Dole told one of the proprietors, who is a correspondent of the Times newspaper of Chicago, similar to what has been heard from America from the columns of that paper, that everything is ready for an independent Republican Government, and they only await to hear what the United States has to reply on the Hawaiian question. There is nothing left undone; all the details are ready, and they are cogitating on the promulgation of a new constitution. It is quite certain that we now have no constitution, because in all the attempts to get an admission of such a fact, even before the courts, which includes the Supreme Court, no candid admission can be got, but they have attempted to dodge the question in their usual deceitful way, so well known to us. And if the United States were to decide that they are absolutely a bastard form of government (illegal), then they would attempt to carry out this other desire of theirs, and it seems that the finger marks of Thurston can be detected in it. It is reported that it was Thurston in person who urged them to do it, because he knows that their cause is weak at Washington. And such seems to be the case. But, for the aborigines, we must stand aloof, because they would gain by our joining them. One reason that they failed in their nefarious scheme was the disregard and failure of the people to sustain them, and such has been very much talked of before the divisions of the American Congress at Washington. And if we do not assist them, it is quite certain that their Republican Government will not be recognized, providing they do promulgate it with accompaniment of kicking and spitting at America, because, they have utterly failed to gain the people's approval, that is, not that of that insignificant minority, but of the majority.

A Question of Taste.

The Advertiser now appears as the censor of public opinion and as the prime "taster." Judge Robertson is abused because he doesn't adhere to the "taste" of the Advertiser. The ministers are abused because they profess to know how much the office of a minister is worth. Messrs. Ena and Emmeluth are abused because they realized that the Hawaiian Legation at Washington is a fraud and that an ordinary salary would be sufficient for the incumbent of that bureau. What is the matter with the "Advertiser." Judge Robertson can fight his own battle with the editor of the Advertiser. The ministers will probably see the Advertiser and make things hum along in a most ugly manner. Messrs. Ena and Emmeluth, the latest victims of the Advertiser spite can stand the criticism and can afford to be classed through the morning journal with "niggers" and "monkey-faced" darkeys. We shall in our next issue show the true inwardness of the vote for Hawaii's Legation at Washington. We shall compare the present appropriation with the appropriation of former years. We shall show the reasons of Mr. Hatch's friendship for the present incumbent—and we shall try to show the recognized fizzle made by Mr. Hastings and Mr. Thurston, the pets of Mr. Hatch and company.

Mr. H. C. Lyon and his tourist travellers will leave by the Anahele for the Coast, on Saturday.

A PROPER KICK.

Improved Apparatus Needed.

The residents in Kalihi are kicking, and we think with good reason. They will have no water and they think that they are entitled to some, either to bathe in or to mix with their ordinary stuff. The following letter explains the situation:

Kamehameha School.

April 20, 1894.

Mr. N. N.

Dear Sir:—

I am instructed by the Trustees of the Kamehameha Schools to inform you, that they will be unable to furnish you water from the Kamehameha system after October the 1st 1894. The girl's about to open calls for all the water that we can furnish with our present apparatus.

I am, yours very truly,
THEODORE RICHARDS.

Yet With Life.

The hope of the restoration of the Queen to the throne, is not dead by any means nor will the monarchical form of Government for Hawaii altogether vanish. If such were the case, the P. G.'s would not lay such stress on swearing the people, in order to get a much desired constitutional convention. Because they see that Hawaii will again live, therefore they have deemed it proper to fetter the people by that oath "to resist any attempt to restore Liliuokalani to the throne or to re-establish the monarchical form of government in any form in the Hawaiian Islands." Do not rely on them and do not sign under such an oath.

ADMIRAL J. G. WALKER, who is now in command of the North Pacific squadron of the U. S. Navy is well known by rank and file of the service as a most thorough disciplinarian and who is most thoroughly respected by his officers. The men of the service present a different side of themselves when under the control of Admiral Walker, as his record for good judgment and bravery during the civil war has been handed down "forward" for the past thirty odd years. The Flagship Philadelphia is the Admiral's home while in port, and his mission hither is very probably known but to himself.

In the cutting down of salaries on a basis of pay for services rendered, the Councils should not forget to slice the Secretary of the Board of Immigration about one half. He has several other incomes which are large and the tax payers might, in his case at least, obtain a lightened burden. During the last twenty-five days, an additional $5.00 per diem has been added to the pay of the office, and he is not even an American.

CORRESPONDENCE.

(We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or the utterances of our correspondents.)

EDITOR HOLOMUA:

We wish to ask Mr. Tim Murray if he can inform us how Cromwell and his Puritan army treated his countrymen when they invaded Ireland? It is a wonder to see Mr. Murray and other true Irishmen, assisting the very much deteriorated descendants of Cromwell, the arch-fiend of Ireland, (who burnt their ancestors in the Churches), and the Puritan offspring are now repeating history by robbing Hawaiians of their country and oppressing them. Ireland complains of England's tyranny over it. Will Mr. Murray explain, where there is any difference in these two cases of Hawaii and Ireland? Mr. Murray, as your countrymen desire England to mete out justice to Ireland, so mete out the same full measure of justice to Hawaii. Again Mr. Murray, try to imagine, that you hear the shrieks of your poor countrymen with their wives and innocent children as Cromwell roasted them in the flames. Also try to picture to yourself the desolation, caused by Puritan soldiers.—of the devil, as they drove helpless mothers with their little ones, from their homes out into the open, to seek a shelter; and pause and remember, you and your countrymen are doing your best to crash out of sight the poor down-trodden Hawaiians who never harmed you. We conjure you by the sacred memory of the great Daniel O'Connell and that grand and heroic patriot Robert Emmet; we conjure you to remember Hawaii when you read the following noble words from Henry Grattan the heroic defender of Irish rights. "Our lives are at your service; but our liberties—we received them from God, we will not resign them to men. Where is the freedom of trade? Where is the security of property? Where is the liberty of the people? In conclusion, we quote the following from that great Irish orator and lover of freedom, Edmund Burke. There is one thing, and one thing only, that defies mutation—that which existed before the world itself. I mean justice: that justice which emanates from the Divinity has a place in the breast of each one of us given us for our guide with regard to ourselves, and with regard to others; and which will stand after this globe is burned to ashes, our advocate or our accuser before the Great Judge when he comes to call upon us for the tenor of a well spent life." Irishmen should scorn the standard of Puritanism.

SHAMROCK.

EDITOR HOLOMUA:

As the political situation of the Sandwich Islands is placed in the hands of the United States of America through the protest of Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani, and we the law abiding citizens are now waiting for an answer, and our hands being forced by the actions of the Government pro tem to us and to the world known as the Provisional Government. I would suggest as an offset to the present vote being taken by the p. g. that we call a meeting to tell the people that they are called together to register their names, place of residence and standing as a protest against the above named action of the p. g.

That a Notary Public shall swear for each and every signature so taken and thus place every man on record and prove to the world that our action is the voice of the people and whether they be black or white their signature stands out before the whole world unpolished by fraud and is vouchered for through a legally authorized officer of the Government; copies of which shall be placed in the hands of every foreign representative sworn to in legal form showing that we wish to abide by the Law and Statutes.

I am sure that by this action that we shall gain our fight, for Government of the people for the people and by the people and that the Government can not legally stop such a meeting. Circulars to be sent to the other Islands and all around this Island stating day and date on which this shall take place.

The members signing will be all in our favor and will show up to the world the fraud, that is being attempted as the voice of the nation through a bloodless revolution and the undiplomatic action of an imbecile representative of a great nation. By the opinion expressed through the representatives of Foreign nations in 1887, we lost no citizenship in or by the oath then taken, and also the naturalization paper of the former Government has been acknowledged and approved by the actions of all, and reserve to us our former rights.

At the present time through the revolutionary party we have no right and the time has now come for us to act. This is the only way I can think of, which will get universal backing and prove a veritable Waterloo.

In another form this will be a plebiscite which I think will settle the question in America, providing that the white and moneyed men have the courage of their convictions and act in conjunction with the natives.
